At the time of the first Preliminary Site Plan submittal, a Master Drainage Plan for the entire development, including a demonstration that the effect the proposed altering and deepening of existing wetlands will have on their ability to filter surface water and percolating groundwater will be acceptable, shall be submitted. This Master Drainage Plan, though it may have been approved by the County, will be subject to modifications by new state-of-the-art techniques and surface water management performance standards that may be developed or adopted during the course of the development process. (Completed)
2. Stormwater management system design for that portion of the development lying within the Evers Reservoir Watershed shall meet or exceed any requirements of the Manatee County Comprehensive Plan and the Manatee County Land Development Code, as may be amended. This shall not be interpreted to mean that the developer is required to retrofit any approved and existing stormwater systems which do not meet this requirement.

and Agricultural Fringe Overlay zones shall be submitted. As required by the Special Treatment District, the Board of County Commissioners must make a determination prior to construction that "Best Possible Technology" is being employed prior to construction. (Completed)

4. The Stormwater Maintenance Plan, submitted with the first Preliminary Plan, shall be designed using accepted best management practices to provide a natural hydroperiod within each wetland. Isolated wetlands shall, where practical, be incorporated into the stormwater system. Construction and post-construction monitoring of surface and groundwater quality and quantity shall be outlined and implemented; included in this plan shall also be the design and execution of a maintenance program to ensure the adequate functioning of the system beyond project build out. The stormwater management system shall be designed with enough flexibility to allow for hydroperiod refinement, as needed.
5. All jurisdictional wetlands and streams shall be preserved physically and functionally. The only exception may be those areas in which appropriate environmental permits and local approvals are obtained.

All development shall comply with the wetland policies of the Comprehensive Plan and the 1990 Land Development Code, as amended. Parcels which have approved Preliminary and Final Site Plans may continue to be developed in a manner consistent with the most recent approval, provided that such approval has not expired.

6. The Preliminary Site Plan, as submitted by phase, shall specifically also outline which and how much of each vegetation association is being preserved. Every effort shall be made by the developer and any future developers of this property to preserve a diverse range of the existing wildlife habitat. These preserve areas should be as large as possible and should be located adjacent to wetlands or a different upland community type.
7. Wetlands on the project site shall be preserved consistent with Map F-1 on page 44 of the ADA additional information response and with s.2.7 of the Council's adopted Future of the Region. In addition, the wetland on Parcel C-5 shall be preserved.
8. Representative tracts of all major upland vegetative communities shall be preserved in their natural state to serve as conservation/recreation areas.
9. The wind and soil erosion controls including sodding, hydroseeding, mulching and bare soil wetting, committed to by the developer in the ADA, shall be required.

WATER QUALITY CONDITIONS

1. To assure water quality is maintained:

- a. The developer shall institute a program to provide a body of initial baseline water quality data before any significant groundbreaking takes place, as well as institute a bi-annual on-going monitoring program through project build-out. Sampling stations shall be at the sampling sites shown in "Exhibit B" (attached to Resolution R-93-25).

Sampling should be taken on a cresting hydrograph and should occur immediately after a one-inch storm event, and after a dry period, during both the rainy season (June-September) and the dry season (November-February). Significant water quality parameters should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- streamflow (cu. ft./sec.);
- turbidity (ntu);
- specific conductance (umho/cm at 25 deg. C);
- dissolved oxygen (mg/l);
- biochemical oxygen demand (mg/l);
- pH;
- total orthophosphate as P (m/l);
- total organic nitrogen as N (mg/l);
- total organic carbon as C (mg/l);
- total coliforms, multiple tube method, MPN (col/100 ml);
- total lead as Pb (ug/l); and
- temperature (deg. C).

Any changes to the sampling stations identified in "Exhibit B", the sampling frequency, or the above list of parameters shall be submitted to Manatee County and TBRPC for review and comment, with approval by Manatee County.

All water quality methods and procedures shall be thoroughly documented and should comply with EPA/DEP Quality Control standards and should be submitted to Manatee County and TBRPC.

- b. The developer shall provide baseline water-level contour maps for the unconfined aquifer on the Creekwood site, to reflect conditions present during both the wet season (June - September) and the dry season (November - February). In addition, the developer shall provide for review annually updated ground water contour maps as described above; until the project reaches completion.

2. In order to protect water quality, the following parameters shall be included in the project drainage plan.

- a. The developer shall submit for approval a wetland-lake management plan, to be implemented during construction and after completion of the project. The plan shall address, but not be limited to, the following:
 - proposed wetland/lake alterations;
 - control of exotic species;
 - control of on-site water quality
 - maintenance of natural hydroperiod; and
 - methods for wetland restoration/enhancement.
- b. The drainage system shall be designed to provide retention, or detention with filtration/assimilation treatment for the first inch of runoff generated from the site during the 25-year, 24-hour design storm; and that maximum post-development shall not exceed pre-development flows for the same design storm.
- c. The proposed retention/detention wetland systems shall be designed to be consistent with the Stormwater and Lake Systems Maintenance and Design Guidelines (TBRPC 1978). The design criteria of this system should include the following elements:
 - (1) A minimum of 15 but no more than 50 percent of the surface area of the detention pond at the normal water level (NWL) shall consist of a shallow vegetated littoral shelf.
 - (2) The littoral shelf shall be incorporated into the pond bank, preferably near the pond outlet, to provide a final polishing treatment for the stormwater. As an alternative, the littoral shelf shall be established on a shallow submerged island in the middle of the pond.
 - (3) A sediment sump shall be provided at all influent pipes to accumulate sediment and to provide easy access for sediment removal.
 - (4) The littoral shelf, if located along the pond bank, shall have side slopes no greater than 7:1 with the top of the shelf at NWL and sloping to a depth of three feet or less.
 - (5) The littoral shelf shall be vegetated with a diverse group of native species which can include Sagittaria, pickerel-weed, Juncus, water lilies, cypress, etc. These species aid in nutrient and heavy metal uptake as well as enhance the pond by providing blooming flowers and presenting a more "natural" appearance.
 - (6) A copy of an operation and maintenance (O & M) schedule shall be provided to the owner, and be submitted to TBRPC with the annual report. The O & M schedule should include an estimation of the frequency of sediment removal operations and should mention the periodic need for removing dead vegetation.

HAZARDOUS WASTE CONDITIONS

1. Prior to the construction of industrial facilities, hazardous waste storage and disposal plans, including transportation of wastes, shall be provided and approved.
2. The developer shall provide separate hazardous waste storage containers/areas within the project prior to or concurrent with the certificate of occupancy for the first business within the project. These containers/areas shall be accessible to all project businesses and shall be clearly marked and/or colored so as to clearly distinguish the containers/areas intended for hazardous wastes and materials. Such containers shall also be designed to prevent unauthorized use or entry. The hazardous waste storage containers/areas shall be allowed to be located within the Evers Reservoir Watershed Overlay District until such time as the first industrial use outside of the Evers Reservoir Watershed Overlay District is constructed, at which time the storage containers/areas shall be relocated outside of the Evers Reservoir Watershed Overlay District.

The developer shall provide to all Creekwood businesses information that:

- a. Indicates types of waste and materials that are considered to be hazardous and are to be stored or disposed of only in the specially-designed containers; and
- b. Indicates the location of the specially-designed hazardous waste and materials containers; and
- c. Advises of applicable statutes and regulations regarding hazardous wastes and materials.

The developer shall ensure that any hazardous waste will be transported and disposed of in a manner consistent with applicable regulations.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONDITION

1. At the time a Preliminary Site Plan for the specific areas referenced in the May 24, 1984 letter from the State Division of Archives, History and Records Management is submitted, the developer must show the location of all archaeological and historic sites identified by a systematic, professional archaeological and historic survey. If any sites exist, the ones which are significant must be protected and preserved.

PARKS AND RECREATION CONDITIONS

1. Implementation of the bike/pedestrian path shall be required as committed in the ADA, unless more restrictive conditions have been placed on the development in this order.
2. Development plans shall assure adequate buffering between the industrial, office, commercial, and residential designations of this development through appropriate measures such as covenants and deed restrictions.
3. Assignment of specific responsibility for open spaces shall be made at the time of Final Plat submittal, unless no plat is required, then it shall be required at time of Final Site Plan submittal.
4. The 25-acre park located in the northwest quadrant of the project as shown on Revised Map H shall be deeded to the County by the Developer upon request of the County. The County shall utilize said acreage for public park purposes. The Developer shall be entitled to impact fee credit as set forth in Section 806.4.1 of the Land Development Code, as may be amended. (Completed)

If the County desires to develop the park prior to the Developer extending Creekwood Boulevard from the southern boundary of Williams Creek north, the County may construct that portion of Creekwood Boulevard necessary to access the park. The Developer shall provide Manatee County with sufficient right-of-way for said construction. If Manatee County undertakes construction of any portion of the roadway, Manatee County shall obtain all necessary permits including any wetland impact permits required for said construction. The Developer shall have the right to review construction plans prior to commencement of construction to determine compatibility with its development plans including, but not limited to, provision of sufficient curb cuts to access development parcels. The road will be constructed to County standards. If the County constructs the road described in this paragraph, and the road is of a type not eligible for impact fee credits pursuant to Section 806.4 of the Land Development Code, then the developer shall reimburse the county for the cost of construction. Reimbursement shall be required in conjunction with Final Site Plan or Final Plat approval for development of the parcels adjacent to that portion of the road which the county constructs. If the road is eligible for impact fee credit and the county constructs the roadway, the developer will not be entitled to reimbursement. The Developer shall have the right to relocate the right-of-way or constructed roads at its expense.

PUBLIC SAFETY CONDITIONS
